

Placemaking Approaches in Northern Ireland: “Living Places”

Angus Kerr,
Director of Planning Policy
Division,
Department for Infrastructure

Strategic Planning Policy Statement

The SPPS sets out 5 core planning principles including:

- Supporting Good Design and positive placemaking;
- Improving Health and Well-being, and;
- Creating and Enhancing Shared Space.

Living Places

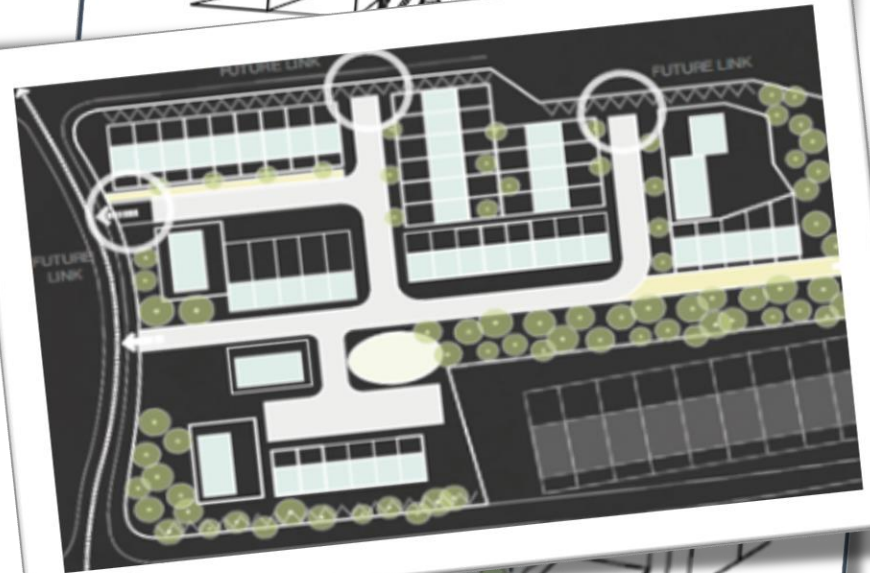

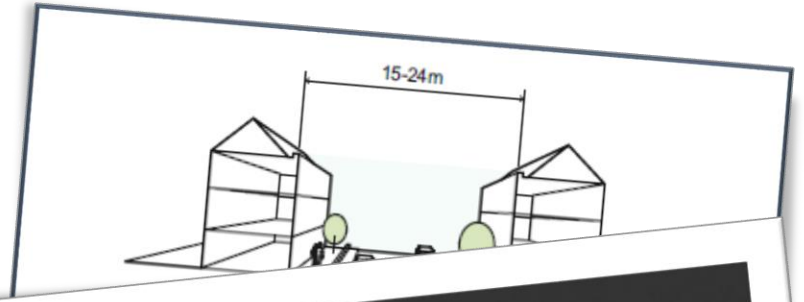

An Urban Stewardship and Design Guide for Northern Ireland

Living Places treats stewardship in equal measure with the more familiar concept of urban design

Stewardship

...Urban Design

10 Qualities

Responsible

Contextual

Accessible

Collaborative

Hospitable

Visionary

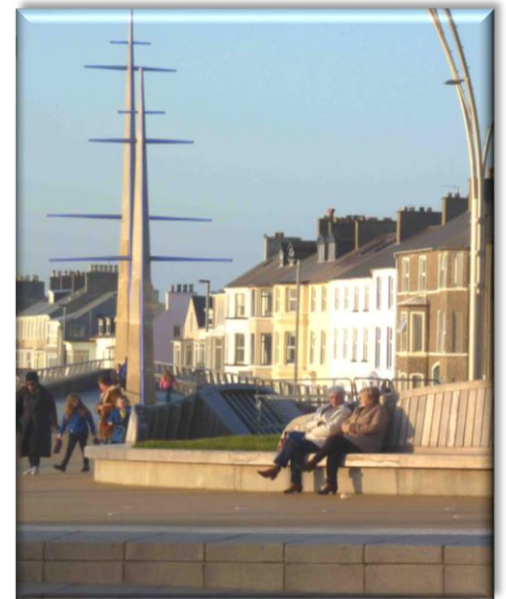

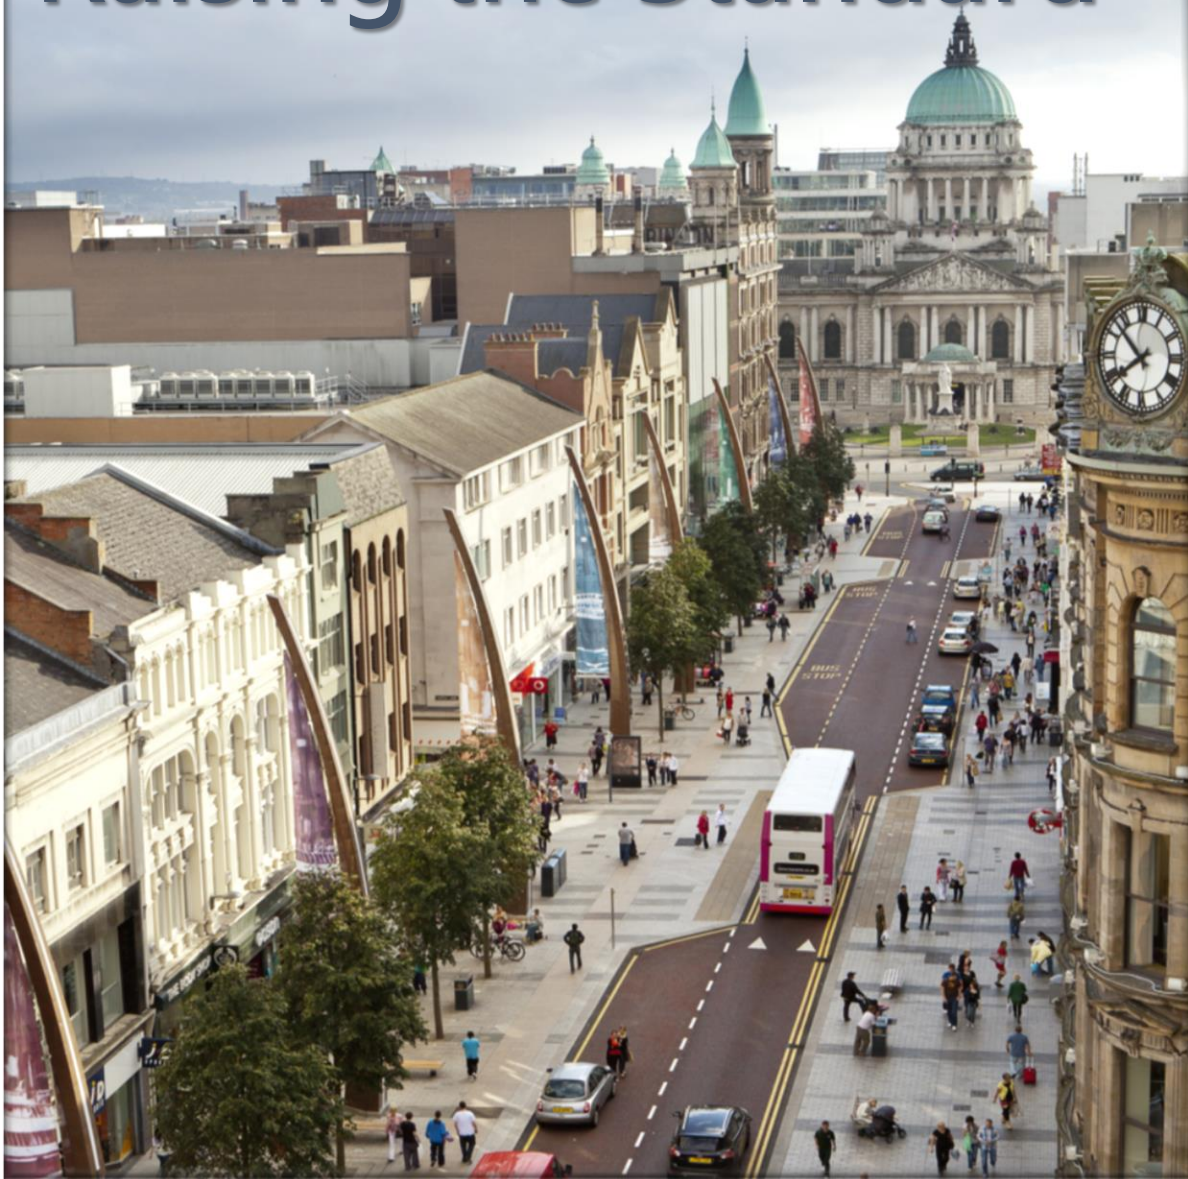

Vibrant and Diverse

Crafted

Viable

Enduring

Raising the Standard

Winning Hearts and Minds!

Promotion

Dedicated Webpage.
Online Place Profiles.

Raising social media presence.

New Brochure: 10 Qualities of Stewardship & Design.

New Initiatives

Pilot Schemes – to show living places in action.

“Living Places Award” for Best Practice.

‘Key to the realisation of the SDG and Living places will be winning hearts and minds!’

...And finally

Download
'Living Places'...

www.Planningni.gov.uk

